

Subject: 2015 Dow Chemical Taiwan Summer Internship Program

WE ARE LOOKING FOR YOU!!

- Junior in University or 1st Graduate School
- Major in Chemical Engineering, Material Science, Environmental Engineering, Mechanical Engineering, Industrial Engineering or other related Engineering Disciplines
- Good communication skill in English and Mandarin
- Familiar with Excel, PowerPoint, Word....

Job Title: Manufacturing & Engineering Summer Intern (Taoyuan Site)

Job Code: #1501248

Job Responsibilities

- Daily operation assistance.
- Assist site EHS (Environment, Health and Safety) related activities.

Job Title: Manufacturing & Engineering Summer Intern (Nankang Site)

Job Code: #1501246

Job Responsibilities

- Site SOP (Standard Operation Procedure) documentation & procedure management
- Safety operation document translation & management

Job Title: Manufacturing & Engineering Summer Intern (Chunan Site)

Job Code: #1501241 & #1501244

Job Responsibilities

- Support production process improvement project.
- Support safety education and adherence to safety policies and practices.
- Production lab testing
- Use analytical instrument to identify production problem

Job Title: Manufacturing & Engineering Summer Intern (Minhsiung Site)

Job Code: #1501231

Job Responsibilities

- EHS(Environment/Health/Safety) data collection and analysis
- Documentation management

Job Title: Research & Development Summer Intern (Taoyuan Site)

Job Code #1501238 & #1501239

Job Responsibilities:

- Chemical analysis
- Electric plating testing

Working time: 8:30am-17:30pm, Monday to Friday

Monthly salary: Junior in University: TWD24,000 above
1st Graduate School: TWD26,000 above

Program Period: 1st July-31st August (2 months)

How to Apply:

1. Please go to www.careersatdow.com for online enrollment.
2. Send your resume to jessicawu@dow.com

Application deadline: 30th April (Thur)